

General Election Newsletter

Brussels Labour

Key Dates

15 May Labour Manifesto published (read the draft here)

20-21 May Brussels Labour go to Oxford East to support Anneliese Dodds

22 May Voter registration deadline

23 May Postal vote deadline

31 May Proxy vote deadline

3 June Brussels Labour go to Tooting to support Rosena Allin-Khan

4 June Brussels Labour go to Hampstead and Kilburn to support Tulip Siddiq

For more info on Brussels Labour sessions email secretary@brusselslabour.eu

For information on Labour Movement for Europe dates click here

In Case You Missed It

- Labour launches its campaign in Manchester
- Keir Starmer outlines our Brexit position
- The conservatives mess up a poster launch
- The public back our policies, just not us
- BBC launches poll tracker

Westminster voting intention

If there was a general election tomorrow, which party would you vote for? %

YouGov | yougov.com

May 9-10, 2017 (change on May 4-5)

Weekend Reading

- 8 ways to campaign when you can't get out on the doorstep (Brussels Labour)

Our Germinal Editor Imogen gives tips on how to campaign for those of us who can't make it back

- 20 years on—Can things only get better for Labour? (ComRes)

Dan Holden of Comres has a poll-based look at what Labour needs to do get better

- Back to the polling booth: what does the election mean? (White House Consultancy)

Chris Rogers looks at key issues at stake

- Here we go again (WA)

Lizzie Wills, Associate Director of WA gives her take just after May's announcement of the election

- Here's what the local election results might tell us about the General Election (Buzzfeed)

There are lots of these takes around the internet, including ones speculating whether the local elections even matter. Here's BuzzFeed's take on it.

If you need financial assistance to join us campaigning email secretary@brusselslabour.eu to find out about our travel grant

Do you have any takes on the general election or any tips for campaigning? Email imogenetyreman@hotmail.com to write for our blog

Twitter: @brusselslabour

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/brusselslabour/>

Email: secretary@brusselslabour.eu